With schools out and temperatures heating up, boaters are increasingly out and about on Lake Conroe. Some boaters are new to Lake Conroe, and some are well experienced on the lake. Either way, it is always good to be reminded of important boater safety tips to ensure you and your family can be safe this summer.

Following boater safety tips can save lives in an emergency.

Did you know that SJRA's Lake Conroe Division manages a plant nursery to help grow native plants that later get transplanted into Lake Conroe? These native plants help enhance the natural ecosystem of the lake. We love working for your water!

#weatheraware Resources

During this time of year the Greater Houston region is prone to weather events that could bring stronger winds and heavy rain. It is very important for you to pay attention to the forecast, become familiar with where you are in the watershed, and know where to get quick but accurate information.

Please check out SJRA's Weather Aware Resource Guide for more information on weather awareness.

Make sure to also follow useful accounts and hashtags on Twitter and other social media to stay up to date with the most accurate information. The San Jacinto River Authority (SJRA) receives no money from the state, nor does it collect any type of taxes.

SJRA's mission is to develop, conserve, and protect the water resources of the San Jacinto River basin. Covering all or part of seven counties, the organization's jurisdiction includes the entire San Jacinto River watershed, excluding Harris County. The SJRA is one of two dozen river authorities in the State of Texas, and like other river authorities, its primary purpose is to implement long-term, regional projects related to water supply and wastewater treatment.
